NOTE.

Dated.....4th October.....*191*8.

If the First Member of Council sees no objection, I shall be obliged if he will kindly cause a note to be prepared on the subject of the training of officers in the Financial Department. The note may embody information under four heads:-

(1) Officers to be trained for top appointments,

(2) Training of officers already in the service,

(3) Number of recruits required in each year for the next five years;

and

(4) The training of recruits in Accountancy and Economics.

Dewan Saheb's minute of 4th October 1918, regarding training of Officers in the Financial Department.

(2) in Dewan Saheb's minute.

1. Training of Officers already in service.

The detailed method of training as regards Government accounts work is laid down in the Civil Account Code, Vol.II, Art 1645. Government have also passed orders in para 9 of the Order of 26th February 1918. The training should cover the P.W. Branches of the Office also. It should include brief deputations to a District Treasury, a Taluk treasury and a P.W.Division. A period of one year to two years according to circumstances during which the Officer will be expected to pass the Government of India examinations will be sufficient. In addition to this I would suggest:

(a) Deputation of six weeks each, to a British Indian accounts office and to a large Railway audit office.

(These deputations may come before the Officer appears for the Higher departmental examination of the Government of India.

After passing both the Government of India examinations,

(b) One month's training under the Manager Mysore Bank, and

(c) One month's training in a large commercial firm or industrial concern for acquiring practial experience of commercial accounts.

Officers promoted from the subordinate ranks of the Accounts department though they are not required to pass the Government of India examinations should undergo the deputations referred to in (a), (b), and (c) above unless they are over 50 years of age.

(1) in Dewan Saheb's minute.

2. Officers to be trained for top apppointments.--

In addition to the training for junior Officers indicated under (1), the senior Officers of the department should have the following opportunities for training.--

(a) Six weeks' deputation to each of the following offices:. Comptroller-General, Controller of Currency, a Local Government Financial Secretariat, the Government of India Financial Secretariat.

(b) Six Weeks' deputation to several large and up-to-date business firms to observe -- business organization, business methods and appliances, handling of staff etc. (including one Bank, one Insurance Office, one large factory and one large import and export firm)

(c) Visits to some of the important -- Indian states to study their financial system.

(d) One year's deputation to England, America and Japan to study the financial systems of these countries.

Of these only (a) is partly in force

now. The others may be new introduced. All the senior officers of the department, viz. Mr. M. N. Krishna Rao, Mr. Bishtopanth -- Badami, Mr. B. Srinivasiengar and Mr. Shamanna, may be put through the deputations (b) and (c) which is sure to do much good. As regards (d) it is doubtful if any of the Officers will agree, but it is very desirable and every encouragement should be held out.

(4) in Dewan Saheb's minute.

3. The training of recruits in Accountancy and Economics.--

The departmental examinations include commercial accounts and Political economy and Public finance. Besides under (1) ~~xx~~ I have included one month's training in the Mysore Bank and one month's training in a large commercial or industrial concern. This supplemented as in (2) by a six-week's deputation to large up-to-date firms of ~~xxx~~ various kinds for studying modern business organization and methods would be sufficient.

(3) in Dewan Saheb's minute.

4. Number of recruits required in each year for the next five years.-

@ Mr. T. Subramiah) Mr.Srirangarajan)

The number of subordinate gazetted appointments in the Comptroller's Office ~~an~~ and the Financial Secretariat is 11. All except two@ of these are substantively held and against the two temporary appointments will have to be counted the two permanent Assistant Comptrollers on other duty, viz., Mr. N. Krishnaswamy Rao and Mr.S.Shamanna.

There will be a vacancy owing to the retirement of Mr. Ramaswamy Iyengar next -- year but it has been decided to take B.Laksmana Rao, Acturial and Accounts scholar -- under training, in his place. If Messrs. N Krishnaswamy Rao and S. Venkatarangam revert to general line, there will be two vacancies. The Comptroller is pressing for one more Officer as a reservist. Mr. Shamanna is restless to go out for a time to the -- general line. Taking all circumstances into consideration the number of vacancies in -- the gazetted staff during the next five -- years may be taken as 5.

To give effect to the policy approved by Government in para 10 of the Order of 26th February 1918, i.e., a regular periodical interchange of officers between the general line and the Accounts office, 5 more Assistant Commissioners may be trained in - Accounts work.

The number of recruits required during the next five years may therefore be taken at the rate of one each year and the number of Assistant Commissioners to be trained in addition, one each year.

Final Note by the ~~First~~ Member of Council.

Subject:—

Systematising the Training of officers in the Financial Department.

In his note dated 31st October, 1918, the Financial Secretary has prepared a comprehensive note regarding the systematic training of officers in the Financial Department and has indicated the lines on which the officers already in service, and those to be recruited, should be put through the courses of training in India and abroad to befit themselves for the work of the department. He has also recommended that, during the next five years, five Assistant Commissioners may be drafted from the general line for training in the Comptroller's office at the rate of 1 officer for each year.

2. The Financial Secretary's proposals were considered in Council, who have approved of them.

Government Order No. Fl. 4613-52—G. F. 92-17-3, dated the 26th February 1918, sanctioning the revision of the Comptroller's Office.

Order No. Fl. 4506-55—G. F. 109-18-2, dated 8th March 1919.

In paras 9 and 10 of the order read above provision has been made for the recruitment and training of gazetted officers of the Account Department, and the detailed method of training of junior officers of the department as regards account work is laid down in Article 1645, Civil Account Code, Volume II. On a careful examination of the requirements of the Account Department for a few years ahead, Government consider that the present arrangements require to be amplified and systematised and they are accordingly pleased to pass the following orders.

2. Training of Junior Officers of the Account Department.—A. Training in Government accounts work.—(1) The detailed methods of training in accounts work will be as laid down in Civil Account Code, Volume II, Article 1645 and para 9 of Government Order of 26th February 1918.

(2) The training will cover Civil, Public Works and Railway Accounts.

(3) It should include brief deputation to a District Treasury, a Taluk Treasury and a Public Works and a Railway Division.

(4) A period of one to two years according to circumstances during which the officer will be expected to pass the Government of India examinations will be prescribed for the training in each case.

B. Deputations outside the State and training in commercial accounts.—In adddition to the training prescribed in sub-para A supra the officers will undergo a further training as follows:—

(1) Each Junior Officer will be deputed for a period of six weeks to each of the following offices, viz., a British Indian Civil and Public Works Account Office and a large Railway Audit Office.

(2) He will be given one month's training under the Manager, Mysore Bank, and another month's training in a large commercial firm or industrial concern for acquiring practical experience of commercial accounts.

The deputation referred to in clause (1) of sub-para B. will be before and that referred to in (2) after the officer passes the Government of India higher examination for Enrolled Officers of the Account Department. It should be noted that officers promoted from subordinate ranks of the Account Department though they are not required to pass Government of India examination should undergo the training specified in sub-para B, clauses (1) and (2) unless they are over 50 years of age.

C. Training of Senior Officers of the Account Department.—In addition to the training indicated for Junior Officers in para 2 supra the Senior Officers will have the following opportunities for further training.

(a) Six weeks' deputation to each of the following offices, viz., Comptroller General, Controller of Currency, a Local Government Financial Secretariat and the Government of India Financial Secretariat.

(b) Six weeks' deputation in all, to several large and up-to-date business firms to observe business organization, business methods, and appliances handling of staff, etc., (Including one Bank, one Insurance office, one large Factory and one large Import and Export Firm).

(c) Visits to some of the important Indian States to study their financial system.

(d) Deputation to foreign countries under the general rules that are or may be prescribed by Government for officers of all departments in respect of such deputation.

No. Fl. 4506-55—G. F. 109-18-2, dated 8th March 1919.

4. In para 10 of Government Order No. Fl. 4613-52—G. F. 92-17-3, dated the 26th February 1918, Government have recognised that an officer of the Account Department qualified for promotion in the general line should be transferred after some years' service in that department. To give effect to this policy Government consider that during the next five years, five Assistant Commissioners in addition to the sanctioned scale of the Comptroller's Office should be drafted to the Account Department, for being trained in Accounts work. They have accordingly decided that during this period one officer will each year be transferred from the general line to the Comptroller's Office for training.

5. The Comptroller is requested to take needful action and to submit to Government suitable proposals in accordance with the foregoing orders.

SIR,

I have the honor to submit the following proposals called for in para 5 of Government Order No.Fl.4506-55/G.F.109-18-2 dated 8th March 1919.

There are the following officers whose deputation to other offices for purposes of study has to be considered under the Scheme sanctioned in the above Government Order:-

1. Mr. T. Satyaraj Chetty.
2. " L. Bishtopanth Badami.
3. " S. Shamanna.
4. " A. N. Raghavachar.
5. " K. R. Krishnaswami Iyengar.
6. " M. A. Rangachar.
7. " M. Venkatanaranappa.

Nos. 1 and 4 are working in the Railway Audit Office which is now independent of the Comptroller. I do not therefore submit any proposals in in regard to these officers.

Mr. Bishtopanth Badami desires to go on deputation to some foreign country under the rules prescribed for such deputation. If there is any chance of his being selected for such deputation, I shall submit detailed proposals in due course.

Mr. Shamanna has long been anxious to go back to the Revenue Department. He has been making this request for a number of years and I think it is ~~in~~ necessary to comply with his request as soon as the special work on which he is now engaged is finished. The question of deputing him to offices outside the State does not therefore arise.

Mr. K. R. Krishnaswami Iyengar's deputation to a Local Government Financial Secretariat may be arranged for in the first instance. I would propose that he may be sent to the Madras Secretariat. He has had no opportunity of seeing the work in a local Accountant-General's Office. It is therefore desirable that he should spend some time in the office of the Accountant-General, Madras, also. I consider that a stay of at least 2 months is necessary for the study of the working of the office of the Accountant-General, which now includes the Public Works Branch also. His deputation to other offices may be arranged for later on, when it will be convenient to spare him for a longer period.

Mr. Rangachar has to study the Public Works and Railway Accounts before he can be sent on deputation to British Indian Civil, Public Works and Railway Account Offices. Arrangements will be made to give him the charge of one of the Work Audit Sections, so that he may become conversant with the local Public Works Accounts. After he has acquainted himself with the Public Works Accounts, arrangements will be made to enable him to study the work of the local Railway Audit Office.

As both Messrs. K. R. Krishnaswami Iyengar and M. A. Rangachar have ~~studied~~ audited the accounts of the Mysore Bank along with Chartered Accountants, it will not be appropriate to send either of them for training under the Manager, Mysore Bank. This item of training may therefore be dropped in their cases.

Mr. Venkatanaranappa sat for the Lower Departmental Examination held this month and proposes to sit for the Higher Examination to be held in November next. He finds it more convenient to go on deputation after he

to the Government of Mysore,

Bangalore.

I am directed to invite reference to your office letter No.1409 dated 17th May 1919 regarding the deputation of senior and junior officers of the Account Department for purposes of study. The Railway -- Account Department has been replaced under the Comptroller and the other conditions in view of which the proposals contained in that letter were made, have also since altered. I am accordingly to request you to be so good as to formulate fresh proposals to give effect to the orders of Government in regard to deputation of officers. In the interests of efficiency of the Department, prompt action for giving effect to the orders of Government dated 8th March 1919 is necessary and I am, therefore, to invite fresh proposals in the matter.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

12.8.19

Financial Secretary.

SIR,

With reference to your letter No. Fl.1144/G.F.109-18 dated 13th August 1919 inviting further proposals regarding the deputation of the officers of the Account Department for study, I have the honor to state that Mr. Bishtopanth Badami is now in charge of the Railway Audit Office and it will not be possible to send him out on deputation. Mr. Lakshminarasimha Rao is officiating Deputy Comptroller in charge of three large sections of this office viz., TAD.A; TAD.B; and WAD.I; and with the existing staff and the distribution of work made under the scheme of reorganization ~~work assigned to him~~ it is not possible to arrange for his work during his absence. Besides, considering their age, I do not consider it expedient to send these two officers on deputation to offices outside the State for study or training.

Mr. Krishnaswami Iyengar should as proposed in this office letter No.1409 dated 16th May 1919 be given the earliest opportunity of seeing the work in the Financial Secretariat of a Local Government, and the Office of one of the Accountants-General in British India. I can arrange for the deputation only if I have a reserve of trained officers to take the place of officers who are absent on leave or deputation. At present, I have none. It was expected that Messrs. Venkatanaranappa and Sundaraj Iyengar (the latter has since been transferred to the Revenue Revenue Department) would complete their training and become fully qualified by December next by which time one of the officer could be deputed for training in accordance with the scheme sanctioned in the Government Order of 8th March 1919. Mr. Venkatanaranappa has since passed the Lower Departmental Examination and he intends sitting for the Higher Departmental Examination in November next. If Mr. Krishnaswami Iyengar is not transferred to the Military Department in accordance with a proposal which was unofficially referred to me last month, I will arrange for his deputation in January next.

Mr. Rangachar, is in charge of the Budget, Resource and Records Sections of this office and under existing conditions and arrangements it will not be possible to place him in charge of one of the Work Audit Sections as proposed in this office letter of the 16th May last till Mr. Venkatanaranappa becomes available and Mr. Krishnaswami Iyengar returns from deputation.

It will become practicable to depute the younger officers for study or training by turns only after a few more officers are trained for the work of this office and I request Government may kindly arrange for at least three officers for this office and one for the Railway Audit Office being trained immediately.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,
